Subject: Carriage of Prohibited items by vessels

Recently an incident was reported by one of the group companies, where one of the project vessels were caught in carrying prohibited items on board, with in ADNOC petroleum ports. The prohibited items discovered included alcoholic drinks.

This incident highlights the substandard practices followed by some of the vessels and importance of maintaining the highest standards of the safety, security, and compliance with the ADNOC petroleum ports.

Considering the gravity and repercussions of this incident, we would like to remind all vessel operators.

- Transfer of Alcoholic beverages is against ADNOC group code of conduct and clause 7.7(Drug and alcohol policy of ADNOC GHSE standard HSE-OH-ST07, and strictly prohibited.
- Ensure vessel crew is aware of the consequences of involvement in unlawful activities and establish a clear policy for disciplinary actions in case of violations.
- Vessels shall not accept/transfer of any parcels/ cargoes, without proper documentations.
- Noncompliance may result in punitive action including but not limited to blacklisting of the vessels within the petroleum ports.
