Subject: Effective Bridge team management & Official language within Ports

This circular is issued to draw attention of all ship masters on the vital significance of the proper bridge team management during their port calls to ADNOC Petroleum ports. Effective bridge team management is crucial for the safety and effectiveness of port operations that all bridge team members including the Pilots thoroughly coordinate, openly and effectively communicate and remain clear about their roles and duties.

Additionally, please be advised that English must be used as the official language for all communications when vessels are operating with the Petroleum Ports

Your adherence to the above will be highly appreciated.
